

Start the relationship well, embed your values early.

MyTeamStarts, is designed to assist leaders consistently evaluate the right things whilst assessing new employees. By assisting leaders to conduct consistent and simple assessments against what is important to the organisation, MyTeamStarts allows leaders to commence building the effective relationships early and communicate to new employees with consistent standards.

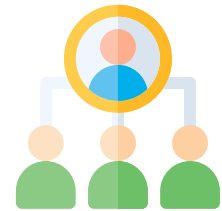

Some of the key capabilities enabled by MyTeamStarts:

regular reminders and accountability for leaders consistent focus on organisations values ability for organisations to report at all levels identify the right fit for your organisation early customize review schedules and content highly secure cloud based access

we enable. you lead.®

www.theaccountableleader.com.au
T: 1800 985 929 | E: customercare@buzz-er.com

We provide leaders with the software, training and support to build trust through genuine conversations and earn respect through consistent management of performance and behaviour within their teams. We also provide organisations with the transparency and reporting to hold leaders accountable for their role as a leader.